

Living in Safety and Stability

1

Purpose: To introduce participants to the programme and to provide them with a basic understanding of what it means to live in safety and stability.

Participant learning objectives:

1. Understand the purpose and requirements of the programme
2. Understand what is meant by Living in Safety & Stability

CONTENT	METHODS/ RESOURCES Slides 1-11 can assist with this session.	APPROX. TIME
What is Living in Safety and Stability	Resources: Flip chart Markers Group discussion – What do we mean by Living in Safety and Stability? Facilitator may record the answers on flipchart at the front of the room.	15 minutes
Name Game - Optional	Ask participants to bring their chairs into a circle. Ask them to tell the group their name and their favourite food that begins with the first letter of their name. Example: My name is Tom and I like Tayto Crisps. The participants must remember everyone’s names and foods before them. The last person to go has all the names and foods to remember!  Tip: Leader goes first to make participants feel at ease.	5-20 minutes depending on group size
Find Your Partner	Resources: Sticky Labels X number of participants Markers This activity is a good icebreaker and works well with a large group (about 12+) to get them mixing and talking with one another.	20 minutes

	Ask participants to line up facing a wall. Inform them that you are going to place a sticky label on their back. The sticky label has the name of one half of a famous couple. Once everyone has a label, they must walk around the room and ask questions to find the other half of their couple. Once they have found their other half, they must stand beside them. Once everyone is in a couple, ask them to tell the rest of the group who they are. Participants must not tell one another the name written on their back. Use examples relative to the age of the group. You can use famous couples from movies, books, reality programmes, celebrity couples, comedy acts etc. Some well-known examples include: Beyonce and Jay-Z Homer and Marge Romeo and Juliet Ant and Dec Tom and Jerry Meghan and Harry Jack and Jill Adam and Eve Debrief: Was this exercise hard/ easy? Do you know much about your famous couple? Who are the most famous couple in NI?
Contract	Resources:  Flip chart &amp; Stand  Markers &amp; Blu Tac This activity involves working with the group to agree a set of guidelines, a contract or an agreement about hopes, fears, and expectations, and can be a good way to explore important themes, establish a safe environment and a way of being together that allows everyone to be clear and to feel safe. Gather ideas from the group around ground rules/ ways of being together that will enable everyone to participate, learn and enjoy the experience. As facilitator, write all ideas on flip chart for all to see. Check for shared understanding and agreement from all group members throughout the process.	20 minutes

	Ensure the contract is on display throughout the duration of the programme and re-visited as necessary/appropriate. Examples of things to think about:          Child Protection          Confidentiality          Mobile phone usage          Session times          Language          Respect for people, places and things          Conflict          Non-negotiable rules - e.g. disrespect/drugs/alcohol Remember to make activities age-appropriate and relevant to the needs &amp; interests of your group.
Hopes and Fears for the Programme	Resources:          Post-it notes (2 colours)          Pens          2 X flip chart paper. One labelled 'Hopes' and one labelled 'Fears'. Bring participants into a full circle. Provide participants with one Post-it note of each colour. Ask participants to write on one colour – HOPES for the programme and FEARS on the other. They can write more than one hope/fear. Stick the flip chart papers on the wall. Once everyone has completed the activity, ask them to stick their notes on the appropriate flip chart. Go through these as a group, clarifying &amp; taking note of any common themes. Participants can remain anonymous if they wish. Facilitator should explore how hopes can be achieved and mitigations in place to reduce fears.          Tip: Leader provides examples of their own hopes and fears first.	20 minutes
Baseline Assessment	Resources:          Baselines assessment – Beginning of programme Inform participants of the purpose of a baseline assessment; to help understand participants' needs, to help measure their potential and to help measure progress they have made throughout the programme.	20 minutes

	Explain that a second review will be conducted towards the end of the programme which will allow the worker/s to compare knowledge and understanding before and after the programme. Baselines should be completed independently, but clarify any questions/ queries with individuals as they arise.
Factors Which Influence Living in Safety and Stability	Resources:  Picture sheet on possible influences X number of pairs in group Split participants into pairs. Ask pairs to work together to decide whether the pictures on Pages 5-7 may have a positive influence on our sense of safety and stability, or whether these may have a negative influence on our safety and stability. Once each pair have completed the task, ask participants to re-group and explain the reasons for their choices. Debrief: Was this exercise hard or easy? Was there anything else / other factors which might influence our safety and stability? Remind participants that no matter what our current situation, we can help ourselves live safer and more stable lives. This can be done through making better decisions and developing our resilience and coping strategies.	20 minutes
Quiz 	Resources:  True/ False Quiz  A4 Signage Place true/ false signage at either side of the room. Ensure you have a copy of the quiz and the correct answers to hand. Ask participants to stand in the middle of the room. Call out the statements on Page 8 and ask participants to walk to the signage they think is correct. Quiz participants further i.e., why do they think it is true/ false? What do they think the correct answer is? Debrief: Do these statistics shock you? Remember, all children and young people experience tough times. This programme can help provide the right support and skills to better deal with tough times.	15 minutes
