You think it would be a great idea to introduce gender-neutral uniforms into your school. How would you advocate your idea?

You see a girl being bullied in youth club by a group of boys for her appearance. You want to stop this from happening. What would you do?

Your coach made a sexist comment about girls not being able to play football. How would you deal with it?

You find out that your local hospital is considering closing the maternity ward. You think this is a horrible idea and want to do something to stop it.

Your school has banned Relationships and Sex Education from being discussed with young people. How would you advocate for your fellow students?

You see a boy from your class being abusive towards his girlfriend outside school. What would you do?

You are transgender and would like your school to introduce a gender-neutral bathroom for you to use. How would you advocate for yourself?