First female doctor, Elizabeth Blackwell

Emmeline Pankhurst founded the Women's Social and Political Union

During WW1, men were sent to the front line and women into workplaces. Women realised, they could complete traditional 'manly' jobs

In the UK, women over 30 and who are homeowners are given the right to vote

In USA, all women are given the right to vote

In the UK, all women are given the right to vote

Rosa Parks refuses to give up her seat on the bus to a white man. This sparked the Civil Rights Movement.

In Great Britain, abortion is decriminalised under the Abortion Act

International Women's Day formalised by United Nations

Margaret Thatcher becomes the f irst UK female prime minister

'Me Too' movement began

In Northern Ireland, abortion was made legal within certain circumstances

Scotland became the first government in the world to pass a law for free menstrual products for all

Kamala Harris becomes the first female vice president in USA

Stephanie Frappart leads the f irst all-female refereeing team in a Men's Football World Cup.